KINO KAO

Directed by Pabitra Rabha
Dapon The Mirror, Assam

Synopsis:

The play KINO KAO reveals the inferior darkness imposed by the society and questions the so called distinctions between perfection and odd ones. No doubt that the human civilization is progressing through modernization and globalization. But there are a few, who are still far away from this sun shine. To whom we use slangs and try to make fun out of them by calling them Bauna (the Dwarf). We use to treat them like the alliance from a different world. The play deals with the reality, complexes, pain, sufferings, desires and dreams of these people.
