NARVAIDEHI

Directed by Abhishek Mudgal
Rang Mastaney, Jaipur

Synopsis:

The play is written by Anil Marwari of Jaipur Theatre. This play depicts a bitter truth of the society on which people hesitate even to talk about it. The play revolves around a Ramlila Mandli who has come from Jaipur to do Ramlila in Rajaram Pura village. There is an artist in the mandli who plays Sita but she is not a woman but a man. The one who, while playing the character of Sita, has started considering himself as Sita. Meaning that he considers himself a woman. This is also seen in our society, there are many such people around us who are woman in a man's body. This play is also based on the status of the actors, in which it is shown what is the financial status of the actors of Ramlila. The life story and struggle of an artist is also shown in this play. What kind of difficulties and troubles are there in the life of Ramlila artists or in the life of any artist are conveyed through this play message that, no matter what the situation may be, but the show must go on.
