

23 DEC | 12:00 PM | KRISHNAYAN, JKK | HINDI | 65 MINUTES

KITNI QAIDEIN

Directed by Ramesh Bhati Namdev
Creative Art Society, Jodhpur

Synopsis:

Meena, wife of Manoj, an engineer posted at Koyna Dam, is suffering from post traumatic stress disorder. She considers herself and her life as zero, adopts procrastination. As a result, Manoj is not able to give conjugal happiness, Manoj takes Meena to visit many places to bring change in her, but non-cooperation, indifference and coldness were always displayed from Meena's side. Din Manoj takes Meena to his office in the womb of the Koyna dam. But because of Meena, he has to return immediately. While returning due to the earthquake, the lift gets stuck in the middle. Where Manoj's assault on Meena when Meena is hysterical, brings about a surprising change in Meena. Being trapped in the lift for a long time, both of them had accepted death as certain. In such a situation, Meena opens the knots of her mind and shows Manoj that why she did not give Manoj the love of a wife. Along with the physical, mental pain, imprisonment, suffocation, stress she got in the past life before marriage, she also mentions about the rape that happened to her. Knowing death is near, Manoj forgets everything and promises to be with him for the rest of his life. But as soon as the clouds of death disperse, that too disperses and leaves the company.

Cast & Credits:

On-stage:

Dr. Hitendra Goyal, Gulnaaz Khan, Eila Ojha,
Naveen Bohra, Neha Rankawat, Vishal Bohra,
Saurabh Deora, Yashwardhan Dave, Nemichand