MAGIC FRUIT - A POETIC TRIP

Written and directed by Vaishnav Vyas

Synopsis:

It's the dawn of Monkey-kind or what is now preferred to be known as Mankind. History does not exist. Nor does time. An ape comes across a magic fruit and thus comes mankind. Rajveer, steps into a city as intricate as a spider web, to only become a single piece of thread that completes this chaotic web. Jhilmil Nagri is bigger than his purposes and smaller than the world in his mind. He seeks a place to stay and a space to escape in. Rajveer goes deeper into the webs of his mind in an attempt to write the story of his escape, only to find out he's not the one writing this story.

Director's note:

How did mankind reach here?

Look around.

How did man reach here?

How did you?

Magic Fruit is a tale that tells the journey of a chimp that doesn't know he can become a human. Once he does. He will become you.

An amalgam of chords, a structure of sounds with some vocals and dialogue is where we will meet in Magic Fruit.
